Hello Karin, below is the WSP email regarding the Sexual Assault Tracking System implementation for our area due to begin on Oct 29, 2018. There is a link to the site that explains the process and requirements. Please take a look at this and we can meet to determine what is needed for us to be in compliance of this mandate.

Thanks,

John

Good Afternoon Chief,

I would like to introduce myself and provide some information regarding the statewide sexual assault kit tracking system (SAKTS) that will "go-live" in your area on October 29, 2018. WSP was tasked with the development of this web-based system, and our Chief designated me as the tracking system business program manager.

As you might recall, the 64th Washington State Legislature created RCW 43.43.545 – Statewide Sexual Assault Kit Tracking System. The SAKTS provides sexual assault survivors with the ability to anonymously track the location and status of their SAK from the point of collection through forensic analysis; to final storage location and possible destruction.

We have worked with the leadership of WASPC and WAPA, and with health care facilities throughout the state. Last spring we completed a successful pilot program with several Pierce County agencies, and our subsequent phased implementation program has yielded good results throughout the state.

Because the law will require SAK tracking for all agencies this year, we would like to provide to our law enforcement partners an opportunity to get a good start on the SAKTS. It will help us to ensure that we can fulfill the legislative intent of the RCW with minimum complexity or disruption to your existing practices.

Our SAKTS website provides information on the development and progress of the program, as well as information on upcoming live online training opportunities for the assigned contacts of the SAKTS. Please find it at <http://wastatepatrol.net/sak/>.

Please let us know who at your agency we may contact to coordinate the project. Our SAKTS team would like to brief the appropriate members of your agency regarding the phased implementation of RCW 43.43.545. A conference call to answer any questions you or your assigned contact may have regarding SAKTS is scheduled for 09/18/2018 at 11:00 AM.

Conference call instructions:

1. Dial Toll-free: 1-877-820-7831
2. Enter the participant pass code: 9479317#

Thanks very much, and we look forward to a productive partnership as we work together to implement RCW 43.43.545.

Jim Tarver
